

WHAT'S COOKING

The Ram's Head Inn in Absecon features recipes made from the apples of local farmers this month. Above, Ram's Head chef Jeff Ireland, farmer Al Butterhof and an unidentified farmer.

Apple month at Ram's Head

By MARGARET BATTISTELLI
For At The Shore

If you're a fan of South Jersey produce — or if you're not and would like to be converted — you'll be glad to know that the Ram's Head Inn in Absecon is continuing its Pride in New Jersey campaign, featuring the produce of local farmers.

October is Apple Month at Ram's Head and will feature recipes made from the apples of farmer Al Butterhof. Recipes will include a Harvest Salad of apples, cheddar and walnuts on a bed of greens, Stuffed Pork Chop with apple fritter, sauteed Medallions of Veal with apple brandy sauce, and warm apple cider with cinnamon.

In addition to a la carte items, Chef Luigi Baretto will offer a complete Jersey Fresh dinner, including apple cider, sorbet, apple dessert and coffee for $29.95 per person.

The Jersey Fresh dinners change monthly, according to seasonal produce.

Ram's Head Inn, 9 W. White Horse Pike, Absecon. Call 652-1700.

